1. Introduction

This Call for Applications is addressed to non-EU applicants with a foreign study qualification who are residing abroad and are applying for a Visa at the Italian Embassy/Consulate.

For admission to the Master's Degree in Artificial Intelligence Engineering (class LM-32) all applicants must submit an online application for evaluation of the academic background; the evaluation of the admission requirements will take place by 31 March 2026 based on the procedure described in this call for applications.

Enrolment must be completed no later than 22 December 2026.

Italian applicants, EU applicants (regardless of their residence), and foreign applicants who are legally residing in Italy, in possession of a foreign study qualification eligible for the enrolment in the Master's Degree Programme in Artificial Intelligence Engineering (class LM-32), shall follow the procedure described in the call for applications specifically issued for them, which will be published in March 2026 indicatively on the website <https://www.unimore.it/it/ateneo/bandi>

2. Qualifications and knowledge required

Admission to the Master's Degree Programme in Artificial Intelligence Engineering is subject to the possession of a Bachelor's degree, or other university three-year degree, or other suitable qualification obtained abroad and deemed suitable.

The curricular requirements for access will be assessed by a special committee through an analysis of the curriculum vitae of studies and other documents submitted by the candidate in the application.

The committee also reserves the right to use a synthetic indicator, such as the CGPA, to carry out an initial selection of applications. In any case, the CGPA of the submitted degree must be higher than 3/4 of the maximum allowed.

If the CGPA is not provided, the weighted average of the grades will be used.

3. Assessment of the academic background

Verification of the academic background will be carried out by a special Board that will assess knowledge not only of the basic subjects typical of Engineering (Mathematics, Physics, Computer Science), but also those characterising Computer Engineering. Students are expected to have a foundational understanding of the broader field of Information Engineering, including basic knowledge of Electronics, Telecommunications, and Automatic Control.

Applicants must also be in possession of a certification of proficiency in English of at least level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference, alternatively, a declaration issued by the university to which they belong confirming that the required level of proficiency has been reached.

The following are accepted:

- International certificates recognised by UNIMORE, listed at the link <http://www.cla.unimore.it/site/home/certificazioni.html>
- University exams of the English language providing teachings of B2 level, documented by a statement of the home University;
- The country of origin is an English-speaking country

For potential future students without suitable documentation for certifying their level of knowledge upon entry, the Language Center of the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia offers the possibility of taking a B2 level test remotely. Enrolment in the English test is subject to the application for the degree course of interest. Candidates will therefore be able to register for an English test only after having applied for the degree course of their choice. All information relating to the B2 test offered by the Language Center is published at the following link <https://www.cla.unimore.it/site/en/home/language-tests/english-b2-test-for-masters-degree-courses-taught-in-english.html>

6. Assessment Results

The Examination Board, appointed by the Interclass Board of the Master's Degree in Artificial Intelligence Engineering (class LM-32) "Enzo Ferrari" Department of Engineering, evaluates the qualifications and the documental evidence attached to the application.

The result of the assessment will be made known to students by means of a notice published at //siaweb.unimore.it/public/valutazionilm/EsitiE.aspx?aaid=2026&testid=2&en=1 by logging in with the credentials issued when registering on the ESSE3 portal and by email to the address indicated during registration.

- PASS: the student's background knowledge is deemed suitable and the curricular requirements are met; as a consequence, if the study qualification has been awarded, the applicant may complete the final enrolment in the programme by following the instructions outlined in 7.
- ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS: after considering the admission requirements and the suitable initial preparation, the Board will indicate any weaknesses (so called educational debt) and the means to comply with them. Any educational debt shall be complied with before the enrolment and in any case by 31 March 2026 to ensure that the applicant has enough time to enrol by 22 December 2026.
- FAIL: in this case the examination board will state the reasons for evaluating the student's academic background as not suitable, or the curricular requirements have not been met. In this case, applicant will not be allowed to enrol.
- INCOMPLETE APPLICATION: if the Board decides that no assessment can be made as the required documentation is incomplete, the application will be labelled as "incomplete documentation" and it will be automatically reopened from the following day with status "not final application". The applicant shall attach the missing documents and finally close the application for a new assessment.

The following may also appear:

- NOT FINAL APPLICATION: if the student has not explicitly confirmed the application by answering YES in the specific field "Do you want to submit your application now?", hence the application cannot be assessed.

- FOR ASSESSMENT: the application has been submitted by the applicant, but the examination Board has not yet assessed the application
